

MEDICAL MALPRACTICE INSURANCE
APPLICATION FORM

A. Important notice

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, you have a duty to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, upon what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty, however, does not require disclosure of matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- that is of common knowledge;
- that your insurer knows, or in the ordinary course of its business, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty of disclosure is waived by the insurer.

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, Underwriters may be entitled to reduce their liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, Underwriters may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Please answer ALL questions fully. If there is insufficient space, please provide further details on a supplementary sheet noting which question number the additional information relates to.

Where provided, please tick (✓) the appropriate box to indicate your answer.

The Applicant will be referred to in this proposal as "You" or "Your".

Short Form Privacy Notice

In order for us to provide our services as an insurer and to provide you with your insurance cover, we collect and process information about you. This information includes details such as your name, address and contact details and any other information that we collect about you in connection with the insurance cover from which you benefit. This information may include more sensitive details such as information about your health or any criminal convictions you may have.

In certain circumstances, we may need your consent to process certain categories of information about you, including any sensitive information (health information or information relating to any criminal convictions). Where your consent is required, unless another ground applies, your consent to this processing is necessary for us to provide our services and we will ask you for your consent separately. You may withdraw your consent at any time. However, should you exercise this right, we may not be able to fulfil the insurance services requested by you, your policy may terminate, or you may be unable to make a claim.

The way insurance works means we may need to disclose your personal information to third parties in the insurance market for example, insurers or other insurance market participants or credit reference agencies and to third parties including loss adjusters, claims handlers and solicitors.

More information about our use of personal data is set out in our Privacy Notice on our website, www.euna.com. We recommend that you review this notice.
